The Lycée Anna De Noailles' foundation

Thanks to the commitment of private and public actors who promote the French language and culture, French and francophone education is now booming in Romania.

The Lycée Français Anna de Noailles - the biggest international secondary school in Romania – the first representation. It is run by an officially recognised Romanian non-profit organisation, bound by an agreement to the Agency of French Education Abroad (AEFE).

Our mission and commitments

- An education in French of the highest excellence thanks to our dynamic, committed and qualified teams
- A multilingual and multicultural education in an international environment
- Continuity of education from Maternelle (preschool) to Terminale (last year of secondary school) in line with the French curriculum and an opportunity to join the world's largest network : 495 schools spread across 137 countries
- Students' personal development and fulfilment in order for them to become citizens of the world.
- An education plan that promotes the students' empowerment, stimulates their desire to learn and encourages them to think critically
- An access to the world's best schools and universities

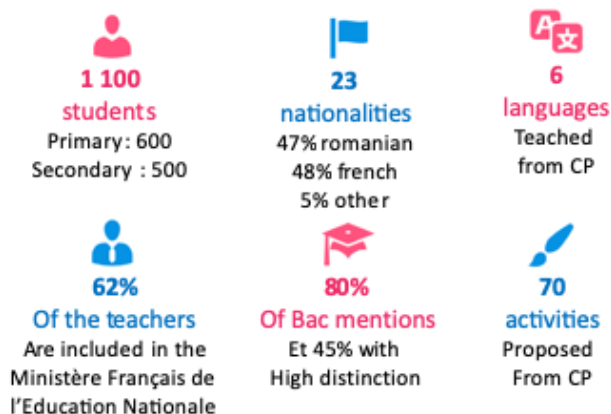

Our history

Our school was first founded by the Union of French citizen in Romania (UFE) in 1920. It was then attached to the French Institute of Bucharest in 1939, before being shut down by the communist regime in 1949.

It reopened in 1960 to welcome the children of the French embassy' employees, but it was only in 1990, after the regime collapsed, that our school was finally able to welcome children from other nationalities.

In 1998, the French School became the Lycée Français Anna de Noailles. In 2013 it was moved to its current location in the north of Bucharest.

Engage with us

Private individual's donations, alongside with companies' sponsoring, represent an important resource for our foundation.

Private individual's commitment is essential for us to complete our mission.

Anna De Noailles' foundation gets donations through two different means:

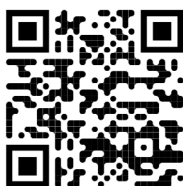

- 2% income tax in support of our foundation
- Direct donation, for any amount you wish

Direct donation

If you wish to make a donation to support the Anna de Noailles' Foundation, please visit our website:

<http://www.lyceefrancais.ro/fondation>

Various payment methods are available.

The 2% income tax

If you wish to support us, you can transfer 2% of your income tax to the Anna De Noailles' foundation.

This amount will not be considered as a donation, but as a part of the annual income tax owed to the State.

Under the tax code, the State allows you to transfer 2% of your income tax to a non-profit organisation working for the community.

The 2% do not represent a cost for the taxpayer.
